

Thomas F. Leversee, LCSW

2565 Quail St. Lakewood, CO 80215

(720) 394-7386

E-mail- tleversee@q.com

Present Positions

- Independent contractor providing consultation, training, and clinical services for at risk youth
- Facilitator of the Denver County Sexual Abuse Review Team (SART)
- Adjunct Professor- University of Denver Graduate School of Social Work

Education

Masters in Social Work

Concentration: Children, Youth, and Families

University of Denver- June 1993

Bachelor of Arts in Social Work

Colorado State University- December 1973

Past Professional Positions

- 2005-2008 (retired) Coordinator of Sex Offense Specific Services- Colorado Division of Youth Corrections. Provision of supervision and monitoring, program development, training, consultation and technical assistance in the implementation of sex offense specific treatment programming for juveniles adjudicated for sexual offenses. DYC representative and vice chair of the state Sex Offender Management Board (SOMB). Oversight of mental health and sex offense specific contracts and budgets.
- 1995-2005- Mental Health Clinician at Lookout Mountain Youth Services Center (LMYSC), Colorado Division of Youth Corrections (DYC). Services provided included the assessment and treatment of delinquent youth with mental disorders, curriculum development, and staff training and consultation.
- Provision of in-home individual and family therapy for adolescents for the Denver Area Youth Services (DAYS) program. Included pretrial and aftercare services.
- 1985-1995- Management and supervision of secure residential units at Lookout Mountain Youth Services Center (LMYSC). Duties included hiring, supervision, and scheduling of personnel, coordinating program development, and participation on the agency management team.
- Therapist on the child and adolescent team at Jefferson Center for Mental Health (JCMH). Developed curriculum for and provided co-facilitation of psycho-educational and treatment groups as part of a pilot project to provide a continuum of interventions to address sexual behavior problems in elementary schools.
- 1980-1985- Youth Services Counselor at LMYSC. Supervised staff and developed, implemented, and coordinated the treatment program for sexually abusive adolescents at Blue Spruce Unit. Provided individual and group counseling to juvenile delinquents.

Licensure and Board Certifications and Listings

- Licensed as a Clinical Social Worker in the state of Colorado
- Colorado Sex Offender Management Board (SOMB) approved Full Operating Level Treatment Provider and Full Operating Level Evaluator of Juveniles who have Committed Sexual Offenses

Memberships in Professional Societies

- Member of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW)
- Clinical Member of the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA)

Awards

- 2012 National Adolescent Perpetration Network (NAPN): In recognition of commitment to the continued delivery of Academic Coursework for professionals working to stop juvenile perpetration of sexual abuse
- 2010 Gary Burgin Leadership Award by the Colorado Sex Offender Management Board
- 2008 George Kerin Lifetime Achievement Award by the Colorado Child and Adolescent Mental Health Coalition
- 2005 National Adolescent Perpetration Network (NAPN) Pioneer Award: Celebrating 21 years of unique contributions to prevent perpetration of sexual abuse

Committee Appointments

- Member of the Colorado Sex Offender Management Board
- Board member of the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA)

Training Activities

Conducted extensive training addressing sexually abusive adolescents and delinquent youth, including the following:

1. Co-authored the curriculum and delivered statewide training on the “Evaluation and Assessment of Juveniles who have Committed Sexual Offenses”. Funded by the Institute for Families at the University of Denver Graduate School of Social Work.
2. “Using Typologies to Individualize the Treatment and Supervision of Juveniles who have Committed Sexual Offenses”- Contracted with the Division of Criminal Justice to deliver training regionally across the state in 2007
3. “Beyond Risk Management to a More Holistic Model for Treating Sexually Abusive Youth”- Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA) conference- October 2008
4. “Dissonance: The Disconnect Between Research and Policy in Juvenile Sexual Offending”. Plenary address at the NAPN Conference in Denver in February of 2010
5. “Addressing Juvenile Sexual Offending: Setting the Foundation for Moving Forward”. Keynote address at Juvenile Sex Offender Management in the Age of SORNA conference. Dover Delaware in April of 2010
6. “What Does the Research Regarding Juvenile Sexual Offending Mean for Your Practice” at the ATSA conference in Phoenix in October of 2010
7. “A Holistic Approach to Juvenile Sexual Offending: Making it a Reality” at the NAPN conference in San Antonio April of 2011
8. “A Holistic Approach to Juvenile Sexual Offending: Theory to Practical Clinical Application” at the ATSA conference in Toronto in November of 2011
9. “Enhancing treatment planning for sexually abusive youth: What do we need to know?” at the NAPN conference in Atlantic City in April of 2012
10. “Applying research to enhance treatment planning for sexually abusive youth” at the ATSA conference in Denver in October of 2012

Bibliography

- Developed and implemented a comprehensive residential treatment program for sexually abusive adolescents at LMYSC. This program description was published in a Safer Society Press publication and reviewed in a report published by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. The program was listed in the book Remedial Intervention in Adolescent Sex Offenses: Nine Program Descriptions.
- Leversee, T. (1993) Increasing Staff Competence: A Clinical Supervision Model. INTERCHANGE: Cooperative Newsletter of the Adolescent Perpetration Network. Denver, CO. C. Henry Kempe National Center for the Treatment and Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect
- Leversee, T. (2001) Relapse Prevention Planning in Residential Treatment. Placement Magazine. January-February.
- Leversee, T. & Pearson, C. (2001) Eliminating the Pendulum Effect: A Balanced Approach to the Assessment, Treatment, and Management of Sexually Abusive Youth. Journal of the Center for Families, Children, & the Courts Vol. 3, 45-57.
- Leversee, T. (2002) Moving Beyond Sexually Abusive Behavior: A Relapse Prevention Curriculum. Includes a therapist manual and a client workbook. NEARI press.
- Leversee, T. (2007) Using Typologies to Individualise the Assessment, Treatment, and Supervision of Sexually Abusive Youth. In Calder, M. (Ed.). Children and Young People who Sexually Abuse: taking the field forward. Lyme Regis, Dorset, Russell House Publishing, 38-52.
- Leversee, T. (2008) Providing Differential Treatment and Supervision to the Diverse Population of Sexually Abusive Youth. The Sex Offender: Offender Evaluation and Program Strategies, Volume VI. In Schwartz, B. (Ed.). Kingston, N.J. Civic Research Institute, Inc., 14-1-14-15.
- Ryan, G., Leversee, T., & Lane, S. (Eds.) (2010). Juvenile Sexual Offending: Causes, Consequences, and Corrections, 3rd edition.. San Francisco, Jossey-Bass Publishers.
- Leversee, T. (2011). Providing Differential Treatment and Supervision to the Diverse Population of Sexually Abusive Youth. Handbook of Sex Offender Treatment. In Schwartz, B. (Ed.). Kingston, N.J. Civic Research Institute, Inc.
- Leversee, T. (2011). Understanding and Applying Typologies in the Context of a Holistic Model for the Treatment of Sexually Offending Juveniles. Contemporary Practice with Young People who Sexually Abuse. In Calder, M. (Ed.). Holyoke, MA: NEARI press.
- Leversee, T. & Powell, K.M. (2012). Beyond risk management to a more holistic model for treating sexually abusive youth. In B. Schwartz (Ed.), The Sex Offender Series, Volume 7. Kingston, NJ: Civic Research Institute